

We're an established, local company looking for outside sales professionals. We offer uncapped compensation, comprehensive benefits and training, with ongoing, one-on-one coaching. Our company is expanding and we need outside salespeople to:

- Call on small- to medium-sized businesses
- Build client relationships
- Find, target, and close potential customers
- Work an established area with existing customers

We are looking for people with:

- Good communication and presentation skills
- A positive attitude and a high level of integrity, professionalism and enthusiasm
- A strong desire to succeed, coupled with an ability to listen and to learn
- The ability to multi-task opportunities
- The best candidate will have outside sales experience in hardware or software

What we offer:

- Outstanding medical insurance
- Professional training, along with personal, one-on-one sales support
- High-productivity bonuses

We're a leader in the area with a management and marketing team that has excellent industry sales experience. We've created a successful sales strategy that offers high quality support, tremendous customer service and the highest level of value for our customers.
